Songs of Justice and Joy from Around the World

Empowering the launch of Circles of Support and Accountability in Worcester

THRIVE Communities is a community-based response to the challenges faced by adults returning from prison. THRIVE cultivates genuine experiences of community that are inclusive of all men and women; empowering returning citizens and engaging local community members.

Circles of Support and Accountability (CoSA) is an evidence-based restorative justice reentry model that facilitates reconciliation and empowerment through community mentorship, mutual support, and accountability.
