Mission Matters

The Mission Committee recently made two donations. One was to St. Luke's Episcopal Church on Pleasant Street. They have adopted a refugee family of 9 who need everything. Judy Hoffman's neighbor said that St. Luke's wants to partner with another church to gather services, housewares, and other needed items. The first request was for funding drivers' lessons for two family members. The Mission Committee voted to donate $600 toward the lessons.

A second donation was to In the Hour of Need Family Shelter (IHN). Here are the key points in a letter received from an IHN Advisory Board member:

"We want to thank you for your many years of support in so many ways... This year, there is a shortfall in our finances. The Emergency Shelter Grant for $50,000 ended after Covid. As you know, the cost of everything has risen greatly. As a result, we are struggling to make ends meet. Our long-standing commitment to serve homeless families is now in jeopardy."

Since IHN moved into the June St. house, the Wesley Mission Committee has donated $2,000 most years, and $2,500 for the last two. The committee voted to give $2,500 for 2024. Fewer and fewer churches are able to contribute to IHN in the $2,000 range. Wesley is fortunate to have mission funding generated over many years by the Bessie Carty Special Purpose Fund. This money can only be used for mission efforts. It also helps to pay a portion of Wesley's Mission Shares (New England and World Missions).

The Kin-Dom is Among You: Growing Closer to God and One Another

There is programming for all ages.

Adult — Welcome Home by Neomi Fletcher

The adult curriculum uses the image of home to explore how living in close proximity to the kin-dom is like making a home with God. Participants are invited to develop practices for building healthy, welcoming communities because of being anchored in the abiding love of God.

Youth — Cultivating Symbiosis: The Nature of God's Kin-dom by Nica Sy

In Creation, we see the power of symbiosis, or interdependent relationships. The youth curriculum explores the idea of symbiosis between our relationships with one another and our relationship with God. By drawing closer to one another and our world, we draw closer to the kin-dom.

Children — Me in the Kin-dom by Kathy Cook

The children's curriculum uses the Lord's Prayer as a lens to help us see that we are all members of the family of God. Children will begin to understand that the kin-dom is living with Christ and one another on earth as in heaven.

More God Moments from Enoh Upkong

I was born into a Christian family. We went to church on Sundays, but I didn't know the Lord as my savior and it didn't matter to me then, until after high school. This was when I knew that I needed the Lord in my life. I started searching for Him by attending different churches and nothing happened.

I was in this search for God's mode, when I started Nursing School in Nigeria. Here, the students had a religious organization called Scripture Union or SU. They invited me to attend their meetings which were held every Wednesday, from 7 pm to 9 pm and I declined. After 3 months, I decided to check it out. This was a day of prayer and fasting. Lo and behold, I encountered my Lord and Savior that night. A shining light struck me, and I started speaking in tongues. Since this incident, my life has changed forever. I found my risen Lord. To our Lord be all the Glory.

The Lord has been with me all the way, guiding, protecting, and blessing me. I completely depend on Him, and He has never disappointed me. In the summer of 2019, I wanted to visit Nigeria with all my children and grandchildren. My husband did not agree with this plan. I had prayed about it and my Lord said, go ahead, so I did. The visit was such a blessing. The weather was perfect, very cool with no rain throughout the period we were there. We came back safely.

Shortly after that came Covid. I can't even imagine if I hadn't used that window of opportunity.
