Spring reading!

Thank you God for loving me

Wingfeather Saga by Andrew Peterson

Benjamin's Box: The Story of Resurrection Eggs by Melody Carlson

Well, that was fast...

Can you believe we are already looking at Spring curriculum plans? Our Sunday School children are excited to build daily reading mobiles for Lent again this year. Each child will take one for their home, as well as we will all work together to build one for our main classroom upstairs.

We will continue looking at the Ten Character Traits of Jesus lesson. So far, we have completed hands on activities for four of them. The character trait of Jesus being wise, was our middle schooler's favorite so far. Each of them helped come up with a game idea for our younger children last month.

Sunday School will also participate in an easy recipe cooking day. We will also have a few more drum lessons this Spring.

Our VBS 2025 curriculum and mascot puppet should be arriving soon, and I have called a few places to make our VBS Mission Project idea a reality. More information on this in the coming weeks!

Have a fantastic Spring everyone!
